Foreword

Our purpose for publishing this yearbook is to preserve for the future scenes of happy and well-spent days at James E. Shepard School. In later years when we glance through the pages of this book, we will have fond recollections and it will become an invaluable piece of the past.

We have tried to bring the true heart of Shepard and not false unrealities. We truly hope that you will like the book because this has been a monumental task, fought with arduous and enduring toils on the part of us, and our advisors. In spite of our many frustrations and heartaches and headaches, the task was finally finished.

We wish to acknowledge the help of the different advertisers for their co-operation in bringing about the publishing of this Annual.

As we look at the finished product, we have a feeling of pride in what we hope is a job well done.

Dedication

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1970 of James E. Shepard School, admire and respect finer womanhood and manhood. We appreciate instructors who have unselfishly worked beyond the call of duty in order to help to mold and develop young men and women of whom the world will be proud. We honor these dedicated teachers who love their profession not for the compensation that it offers but because of the joy they receive in helping others.

For these and many other reasons, we take pride in dedicating the last yearbook for James E. Shepard School to

Mrs. Marie S. Wilcox

In Appreciation

To our parents and guardians who through their love, prayers, and sacrifices have made it possible for us to achieve one of the most precious and most prized goals on our ladder of success - high school graduation - we express our sincere gratitude and deepest appreciation. Had it not been for you, we would never have attained this goal. You have been very understanding, extremely patient, and most cooperative. We want you to know that we are proud to own you as our parents and we, in turn, hope that you are proud to own us as your sons and daughters.

We shall never be able to repay you for all the wonderful things which you have done for us, but the least that we can do now is say,

"A Million Thanks And God Bless Each Of You."

Principal's Message

Do not wait for something to turn up, get a spade and dig for it. Do not seek for praise or fame, but strive to derive satisfaction and contentment from doing well the multitude of tasks which the world is eager to have accomplished. In these times of uncertainty and swift change the most dependable resource is your will to achieve and willing hands to tackle the work awaiting for someone to do. There isn't any road map which shows you the road to success. You have to make it yourself. Opportunity does not knock daily at your door, but temptation pounds away every day while calling in dulcet tones to wait awhile before you begin the tasks which await your skills and talents. Enthusiasm is the best shortening for any job. It makes the heaviest work seem lighter. Self confidence, faith, tenacity of purpose can sustain you when all else fails. One of our basic troubles today is that too many of us are looking for someone to do something for us, rather than finding something to do for ourselves. The successful person has learned to take longer steps when he discovers that fate has deceived him. The failures look about for a place to sit down and cry. Never worry about the job you dislike, or tasks you hate to perform. Someone else will replace you tomorrow. Be not afraid of the future, you have seen yesterday and today.

Shepard High School
1930-1970

Shepard High School will ring down the curtain on June 1, 1970 to a most exciting and challenging four decades of educational growth and pioneering in the history of Wake County schools. For forty years this institution, situated just east of the town limits of Zebulon, North Carolina on Highway #64 East, has been a symbol and mecca for aspiring black youth of Eastern Wake County to study, to learn, to live and to receive formal instruction in the arts and sciences which characterize the many facets of education.

Approximately 3,800 (three thousand eight hundred) enrolled in the high school during these four decades. More than 2,000 (two thousand) did not remain to graduate here; however, many transferred to other high schools to complete their secondary education. More than 1,700 (one thousand seven hundred) remained to graduate from Shepard High.

These, in large numbers, assumed their status in the adult community as parents, as farmers, and as workers in the skilled and unskilled service occupations; while hundreds of them continued their training in the professions and higher educational pursuits. Hundreds moved away from the area to play their roles as responsible citizens in widely-scattered localities from Miami to Detroit; from Boston to San Francisco.

The original name, Wakefield-Zebulon High School, was changed to Shepard High School in 1943.

The dual school system will be eliminated following the end of the present school term. All Wake County schools will become a unitary system of education. September, 1970, the high school program and pupils will be merged with the Wakelon High School.

Commencement in 1970 will mark the final graduating class from Shepard School. The 1970 class will bring to a close the forty years of secondary instruction in this institution; thus, it seems fitting and proper that this Yearbook give a panoramic review of the highlights of the past four decades of high school achievement.

November 1, 1918 - October 1, 1940

His twenty-two year tenure witnessed the beginning of consolidation and development of union schools for both races. During his leadership vocational programs began in secondary schools.

John C. Lockhart

October 1, 1940 - March 23, 1956

His sixteen year tenure wrought many changes in the structure and organization of the school system. Scores of one and two-teacher schools phased out.

Randolph Benton

March 23, 1956 - April 18, 1967

Eleven year administration brought rapid and phenomenal growth in pupil population, extended consolidation to all areas of county, and began the development of many curriculum changes which offered programs and courses more relevant to the transition from a largely agricultural to a more industrialized community.

Principals 1930-1970

Principals who have guided the growth and development of Wakefield-Zebulon High, later named Shepard High, through four decades of educational history:

CHARLES ALBERT MARRIOTT - Principal, 1929-1932

Educated: Wake County Schools: A. B. Degree - Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C.; M.A. Degree - Columbia University, New York City. Inaugurated first four-year high school program for Shepard High. Purchased from personal funds first school bus to transport high school pupils from communities of Knightdale, Shotwell, Wilder's Grove, Riley Hill, Wendell, White Oak, and Pilot. This marked the first step in transportation of black students to any school in Wake County. Parents paid a weekly fee for each child to cover the cost of operation and upkeep of the Ford T Model used school bus. The school custodian served as operator bus driver without pay for the first year of service to these communities.

RICHARD ALLEN CARROLL, JR. - Principal, 1932-1939

Educated: Classical High School, Providence, Rhode Island; B.S. Degree - Lincoln, Pennsylvania; Graduate Study - Hampton Institute, Hampton, Virginia. Organized and directed the first basketball tournament in East Piedmont region, embracing the counties of Durham, Wake, Johnston, Granville, Vance, Franklin, Person, Nash, Warren, Edgecombe, and Pitt. Persuaded County School Board to provide additional classrooms, central heating, and indoor sanitary facilities. Developed Vocational Agriculture and Home Economics programs in the curriculum. Received accreditation by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction in 1933.

GARLAND LAFAYETTE CREWS - Principal, 1939-1970

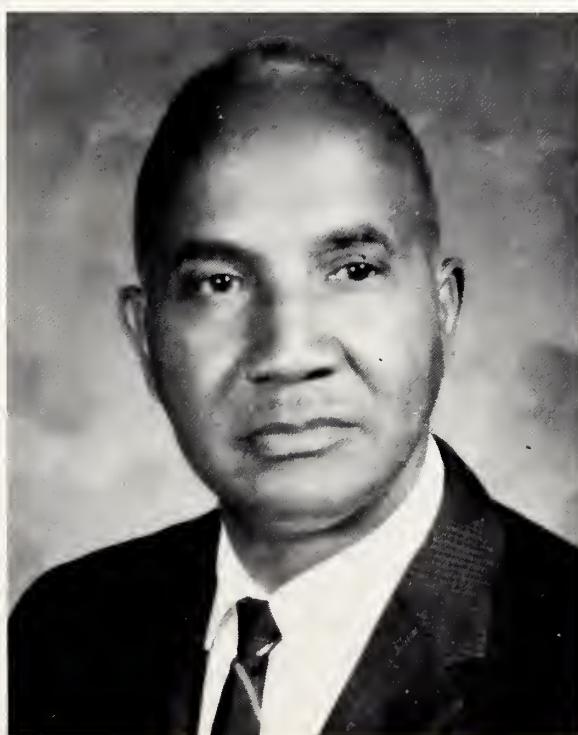

Educated: Granville County elementary and high schools - Creedmoor and Oxford, North Carolina; B.S. Degree - Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C.; Graduate Study - University of Michigan and Columbia University; Graduate professional degree - M.A. New York University. Served thirty-eight years in the field of education - thirty-three of these years as principal in the Wake County Unit. Term of office highlighted by growth of physical plant from one to five buildings; increase of staff from twelve teachers to thirty-seven; accreditation by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges, 1955; reevaluation, with school maintaining accredited status, 1968.

Wake County Schools
Box 6526
Raleigh, North Carolina 27608

Dear Mr. Fussell:

Re: Shepard High School

Pursuant to a re-evaluation based upon current standards for accreditation of high schools (Publication No. 356), I am pleased to advise that upon recommendation of our accreditation committee, the accredited rating of this school is continued. In accordance with established practice, there will be an annual review based essentially, but not exclusively, upon the Principals Preliminary Report.

We share with you and your associates the sense of satisfaction that comes with this achievement and extend to all a sincere expression of commendation.

Accreditation is not merely a recognition of what the school has done; it is of greater significance as a recognition of what the school is doing. We are confident that the challenge to provide a better educational opportunity for children and youth will continue to command the interest and the efforts of all concerned.

As members of our staff may be of assistance to you and your associates, I trust you will feel free to call on us.

Sincerely yours,

Nile F. Hunt, Director
Division of General Education

P.T.A. Presidents 1930-1970

Eight individuals have served Shepard School as P.T.A. presidents during this period of forty years. They were instrumental in guiding the P.T.A. and school through this period of phenomenal growth and expansion. Their foresight and dedication to provide better educational advantages for all the children in eastern Wake County gave positive direction and support of all school programs and curricula development through the four decades. Their period of tenure ranged from one year to ten years. This fostered continuity of purposes.

This institution has been remarkably fortunate to have among the faculty members six whose combined years of service to education in North Carolina Public Schools total more than two hundred years. It is remarkable to contemplate the number of faces which are etched on their memories of boys and girls who received instruction at their pleasure, although the names to match the images have been lost forever in the mists of time. In spite of, or maybe because of, the ever-changing vicissitudes surrounding the daily labor of these individuals, they yet retain much of their youthful enthusiasm and vigor in meeting the challenges of the classroom.

Careers

The curriculum of the James E. Shepard High School has been expanded yearly in order to provide a variety of choices and clearly-structured avenues to successful living.

Though possessed with ability, many of our graduates decided to content themselves with a happy family life. Others specialized in areas necessary to subdue the earth and bring all creation under man's dominion.

Following are some of the pursuits in which Shepard graduates are engaged:

NUMBER	PROFESSION	NUMBER	PROFESSION
21	Army Career	79	Medical Professions
51	Barbers	7	Ministers
6	Beauticians	1	Mortician

1932-1962

From 1932 to 1962 our Agriculture Department functioned under the leadership of Mr. J. T. Locke. During these years our boys won many national, state, and local honors.

In 1936 one student won the State Judging Contest which was held at A. & T. College, Greensboro, North Carolina and represented North Carolina at the second meeting of the National Organization at Hampton Institute in Virginia. Other achievements were as follows:

1. Raising in 1945 and 1951 the largest sums of money for the Oxford Orphanage.
2. Winning the New Farmer's Quiz Contest, the Live-Stock Judging Contest, Public Speaking Contest, and a $500.00 scholarship from the Smith-Douglas Company.
3. Winning for three students an expense-paid trip to Chicago, Illinois to the International Live-Stock Show.

The Veteran's program was also introduced under Mr. Locke's supervision. Teachers in this organization were Mr. J. E. Swayze, Mr. R. L. Barfield, Mr. H. J. Richardson, Mr. A. L. Privette, Mr. F. B. Bynum, and Mr. E. L. Roberts. Approximately 110 students were enrolled in this program.

After serving for thirty years, Mr. Locke retired in 1962. The faculty, patrons, and student body honored him with a special program which was given in appreciation for his loyal service.

Vocational Agriculture

The Agriculture Department continued to make progress under the leadership of E. T. Revell. The judging team won 1st place in the Berry O'Kelly Federation and represented the Federation at the NFA State Convention held in Greensboro, North Carolina, at A & T College in June, 1963.

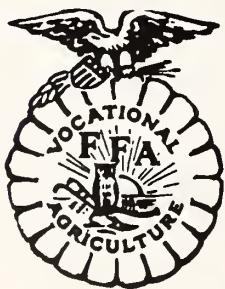

By winning first place in public speaking and quartet and third place in the quiz and talent contest, the Department gained the Berry O'Kelly Federation Banner in 1964. The first place winners represented the Federation at the NFA Convention at A & T College. The sectional winner in the NFA organization received a trophy and an expense-paid trip to the National NFA Convention, Atlanta, Georgia.

The NFA Chapter and the FFA Chapter merged in 1965 at the FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri. One of Shepard's students was elected the last treasurer of the NFA State Association. He was the first member to attend the Tom Brown FFA Leadership School. He also attended the last National Convention of the NFA at Atlanta in 1965.

Thirty-five members of the FFA Chapter have received the State Farmer's Degree since 1963. Two members have received the American Farmer's Degree within the past three years. These individuals attended the 39th and 40th meetings of the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri to receive the award.

Vocational Home Economics

The vocational home economics building was officially opened in ceremonies on May 24, 1953.

Members of the adult homemaking class model their new fashions.

The purpose of home economics at James E. Shepard School is to help the student to live a more useful and satisfying personal, family, and community life. Areas of family life studied are child development, clothing, family economics and consumer education, food and nutrition, family relations, health, and guidance. Home projects and home visitation relate classroom learnings to the actual home situation. Future Homemakers of America activities afford opportunity for personal growth and for making contributions to school, home, and community life. The adult homemaking program provides the opportunity for adults to further their education and keep up with new trends in the field of homemaking.

Distributive Education

Distributive education was offered for the first time at Shepard School during the year 1968-69. Students have been employed in grocery stores, a wholesale grocery firm, knitting mills, restaurants and variety stores. They have participated in DECA activities including district contests and leadership conferences and served as hosts for the State Leadership Conference held in Raleigh. Several were models in a fashion show in the North Hills Mall during the State Leadership Conference.

Transportation

1930-1970

Transportation services have been the key to the development of Shepard High School over the four decades. Until 1930, neither Wake County nor the State of North Carolina had assumed responsibility for the transportation of black children.

To meet the critical need, one second-hand Model T Ford school bus was provided as a gift of the incumbent principal. Such a method of meeting the challenge to provide transportation for high school pupils from all areas of eastern Wake County to this union school was without parallel in this administrative unit. This bus served Wilder's Grove, Knightdale, Shottwell, Riley Hill, Wendell, White Oak, and Pilot communities, traveling approximately eighty miles daily.

An example of the zeal and dedication of parents in the 1930's was that Mr. Arthur R. Perry, first bus driver for the high school transportation effort, served without monetary compensation for the full year. Mr. Perry had the distinction of driving a school bus to Shepard for twenty years, longer than any other individual in Wake County, and of driving without accident or traffic citation.

Shepard High, today, 1970, is served by twenty-one buses in the Zebulon attendance area; in addition, five transfer buses operating outside the Zebulon attendance area transfer high school children from the Eagle Rock, Wendell, Rolesville areas to attend Shepard High.

Guidance

Guidance services have always been a part of Shepard's history. Even when the faculty was small and individual responsibilities extensive, there were those on the staff to offer help whenever the students' personal decisions and crises required attention. Then, as now, the guidance-minded persons recognized the worth and dignity of each person and sought to always help each pupil become all that he could.

Since 1961 a full-time professional counselor has been a part of the staff. The three persons who have served in this capacity are Frank L. Turner, Benjamin F. Merritt, and Mrs. Verna L. Lee.

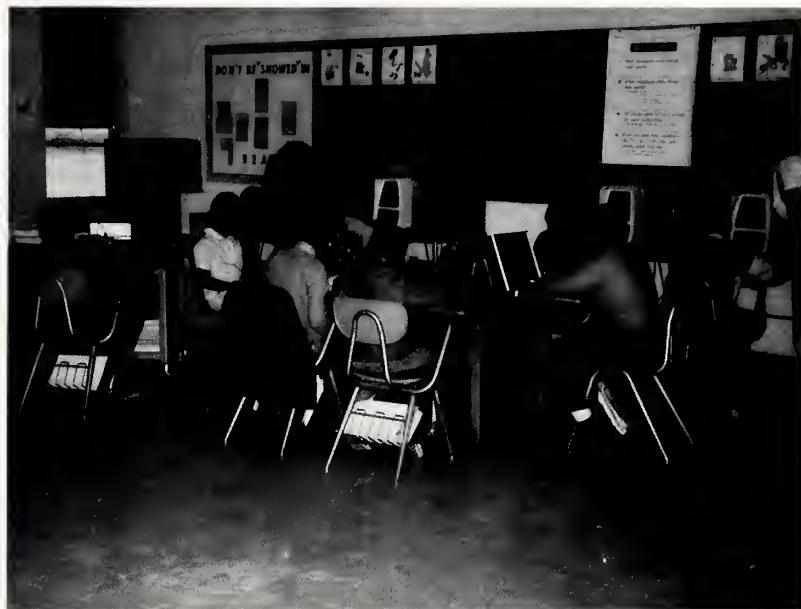

Today's guidance services are specifically designed to offer professional assistance in every phase of the students' development: personal, social, educational and vocational. To this end the guidance services are involved in the following activities: individual and group counseling, testing, assimilating and distributing educational and vocational information, orientation, placement and follow up.

The Reading Laboratory

The Reading Laboratory at Shepard is one of the most important services made available to our children. It is one of the services made available with ESEA funds that have been allotted to Title I. The need for the service is reflected in pupil performance from day to day as they are confronted with the tasks relating to the communicative skills.

The Reading Laboratory is different from the traditional classroom. Seating arrangement, furniture, and equipment are different so that the children find new incentives to aspire to their levels of achievement.

We are fortunate to have a wealth of material and equipment to help the teacher help the pupils to read more effectively. Equipment and material are adequate for group instruction, but special emphasis has been placed on equipment and material for individual instruction.

The pupils' experiences are both differently new and difficult enough to challenge the enthusiasm and best efforts of the children.

Intimate contact is made with each pupil since the maximum number per class is ten pupils.

Development of Music at Shepard

The first band was organized under the direction of Mr. James Skelton in 1952. The second band was started in '59 with 78 members under the direction of Mr. O. L. Taylor (1959-61). In 1963 the third band was started. The directors were Mr. J. W. Fuiell and Mr. T. S. Cooper. There were approximately 65 members.

The Elementary Glee Club was organized under the direction of Miss Rachel V. Jones, Miss Ruby L. Vaughan, and Mrs. M. S. Wilcox. The present directors of the club are Mr. J. M. Clay, Mrs. Ruby Collins, Mrs. Rose White Carpenter and Miss E. Brandon.

The High School Glee Club has been under the direction of the following persons: Mrs. A. H. Carroll, Mrs. A. O. Dunn, Mr. O. L. Taylor, Mrs. T. C. Browning, Mr. T. E. Cooper, and Mrs. M. C. Williamson. The present directors are Mrs. M. Herndon, Miss J. Jacober and Mrs. J. Burton.

The glee clubs and bands have participated in several music festivals as well as other musical activities such as parades, homecoming events, etc.

The classroom teachers have received every aid possible from the following music specialists: Miss Ernestine Arnette, Miss Marie French, Mrs. Doris Parker, Mrs. Linda Rickenbacker, Mrs. Leatrice Highsmith, and Mrs. Jacqueline Burton.

Student Council

Shepard has had a Student Council for several years. It is affiliated with the North Carolina Association of Student Councils, the National Association of Student Councils, and the Wake County Association of Student Councils.

The Council encourages student participation in school government, and it gives the student body a representative voice.

Since the organization of the Student Council at Shepard, it has sponsored and participated in many worthwhile campaigns and projects. Some of its projects and activities have included: boxes of food to needy families; handbooks for freshmen, assembly programs, socials, the annual March of Dimes Campaign, publication of the Alma Mater for the benefit of the student body and faculty, the promotion of school spirit, participation in the work of the Human Relations Council, and sponsorship of the Good Neighbor Council to help smooth the merger of the Shepard and Wakelon schools.

The Council is composed of seven officials elected by the student body and two representatives from each homeroom group.

The Council meets twice per month and works continuously to better the total environment at Shepard.

Dramatics Club

This club's main purpose is to promote wholesome social activities. Busybee Charms.

School Song

JAMES E. SHEPARD SCHOOL SONG

Tune: Auld Lang Syne

Composer: Mrs. A. O. Dunn

We're filled with pep and eager step
As the jolly days go by,
With effort bright, decision right;
With a smile and not a sigh.
Our school's the best, you know the rest—
Our motto, we'll explain—
United we, you plainly see, success we must obtain.

Our parents true, and teachers too
Are doing noble parts,
Mankind must know, we're bound to show
We love them from our hearts.
We raise the song, James E. Shephard School,
Our Alma Mater true,
With heart and voice, we do rejoice,
Good luck, three cheers to you.

Since best of all, within your walls
Great lessons we have learned
We'll always answer duty's call
For merits we have earned.
We thank you twice, we thank you thrice
For battles we have won;
We'll praise forever and anon
Our JAMES E. SHEPARD SCHOOL.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

While striving to reach the hill of success
We've faced toils and competition of the best
But equipped with the integrity to emerge farther
We will defeat the obstacles of other brothers.

We must pay tribute to all who have prepared us for the strife
That we have to conquer in life
What you have given us behind Shepard's doors
Will help us to reach our goals after we leave the lion's roars

The loyalty to Shepard High we will maintain
Our appreciation to the teachers will forever reign
Though we venture into the future, our memories will never die
Of all the tears, joy, and happiness we shared at dear ole Shepard High.

FAREWELL TO ALL
(Tune: Just One Look)

Now we say good-bye
So long to Shepard High
Time to climb with no time to waste
We are on, on our way.

We will miss you all
We won't be back next fall
We are now prepared to find
Our place in this old world.

This is our song
A thanks for all you've done
Farewell to All
Farewell to All.

You have helped us through
So now we're thanking you
We are on our way
Farewell To All.

Seniors' Message

Dear Juniors,

For success in whatever your endeavors are,
our advice to you is to prepare yourselves now.

We believe that you will receive that which you earn - no more no less.

We urge you to take advantage of all of the educational opportunities offered you at Toler, and when you have acquired all there is to be acquired, we believe that you will be able to venture out into life with the dignity, reverence, and pride needed for your future happiness.

Yesterday is gone, forget it; today is here, use it; tomorrow is coming, prepare for it.

Best Wishes Always,

Class History

As we, the Class of 1970, gradually approach our goal, we begin to look back into the past and to remember our first year at Shepard High. We remember the excitement, splendor, and happiness that accompanied those past years.

As Freshmen, we anticipated a new way of school life. We made ourselves accustomed to new ideas and customs. With determination we pushed forward with the help of our advisors, Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Williamson, and Mr. Teel. The presidents who represented the three sections of our class were Nellie High, Donald Morgan, and Linda Robertson.

When we returned as Sophomores, we thought that we were as wise as the owls. But, oh how wrong we were! We soon learned that there was much more to be accomplished before we could reach our destiny. Many of us participated in the various activities. One of our class members, Delores O'Neal, won the title of "Miss Senior High." Some had the honor and pleasure of serving as waiters and waitresses for the Junior-Senior Prom. They were Teresa Horton, Patricia Perry, Deborah Ferrell, Brenda Lucas, Christine Richardson, Samuel Jones, Vernon Bullock, Dwight Walton, Ronald Morgan, and Larry Whitley.

Our advisors were Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Williamson, and Mr. Yates.

Our class presidents were Nellie High and Donald Morgan.

We then looked forward to our junior year.

This year brought along with it all the splendor and excitement that we had expected. Most of us had the experience of entering the Crown and Scepter Club. However, the most memorable experience of all was the Junior-Senior Prom which had as its theme, "A Shower of Stars."

Our class advisors were Mrs. McCoy, Mrs. Williamson, and Mr. Yates.

The class officers were:

President - Donald Morgan

Vice-President - Deborah Ferrell

Secretary - Wanda Vick

Assistant Sec. - Vivian Bullock

Finally we have reached our long awaited goal. Seniors at last! We are striving to make our last year a very successful one. Our projects include plans for our future life which lies ahead of us. Nevertheless, our biggest project was the publication of our yearbook. It was our aim and greatest desire to produce a very interesting and memorable one.

The following students were responsible for the Senior Class receiving much honor and distinction:

Gwendolyn Carpenter - "Miss Shepard High"

Donald Jones - "Mr. Shepard High"

Dorothy Gillis - "Miss Homecoming"

Our class advisors are Miss J. M. Harris and Mr. Handy Yates, Jr. The class officers are: Larry Mayo, President; Patricia Perry, Vice-President; Secretary, Wanda Vick; Assistant Secretary, Judy Porter; Parliamentarians, Walter Rogers and David Norwood; and Reporters, Shirley Mitchell and Dorothy Gillis.

We feel that Shepard has really done its duty in preparing us for the future. We only hope that we do not fail this noble institution.

As we leave the halls of Shepard High and advance towards the rim of the future, memories will still echo through our hearts and minds forever.

Patricia Perry, Historian
